

Understanding Your Publishing Options

Modern technology has created a bewildering array of choices for authors interested in publishing – from trade publishing to co-publishing, print-on-demand to e-books. Lynn Duncan will discuss the merits and pitfalls of each using actual case studies. vivalogue.com

466563 May 21
Th 7:00 - 9:00pm 1/$12

Editors as Partners, not Enemies

The job of an editor is not to rewrite an author's work but to work collaboratively to craft the best experience for the reader. Andrea Lister will talk about how she selects articles for publication and works with authors in her work as Editor of British Columbia History magazine. She will also share stories of her freelance work as a book editor, copy editor, proof-reader, indexer, and designer.

absolutelyliterate.com
466564 May 28
Th 7:00 - 9:00pm 1/$12

Aldergrove Kinsmen Community Centre

26770 - 29 Avenue, Langley
604.856.2899

Langley Centennial Museum

9135 King Street, Fort Langley
604.532.3536

W.C. Blair Recreation Centre

22200 Fraser Highway, Langley
604.533.6170

Walnut Grove Community Centre

8889 Walnut Grove Drive, Langley
604.882.0408

Willoughby Community Centre at the Langley Events Centre

7888 - 200 Street, Langley
604.455.8821

Willowbrook Recreation Centre

20338 - 65 Avenue, Langley
604.532.3500

The Township of Langley strives to use environmentally responsible methods and materials and encourages its residents to do the same. Please recycle.

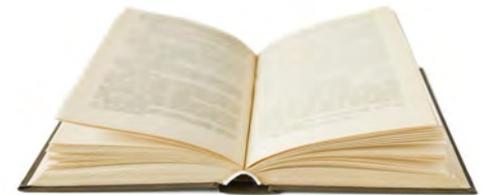

RCP11-2221P

tol.ca

Art of the Book Lecture Series

Join us at the Langley Centennial Museum (9135 King Street, Fort Langley) as we invite authors and other literary professionals to share their creative process and provide insight into this noble craft. Whether you are an aspiring author or a literary aficionado this lecture series will be sure to enlighten and engage you!

Stay ACTIVE | Stay INVOLVED | Stay HEALTHY

The Importance of Books Beyond the Text

Quite apart from the potential beauty of the craft of publishing, we have much to learn from the social context and historical perspective of a volume of history. Brian Murdoch was the owner of Murdoch's Bookshoppe in Mission for 20 years, dealing in rare, out-of-print, and antiquarian books. In 2013 he closed the store and has been concentrating on online sales, still hoping to create for his customers the joy of discovering a book they didn't know existed. murdochbookshoppe.com

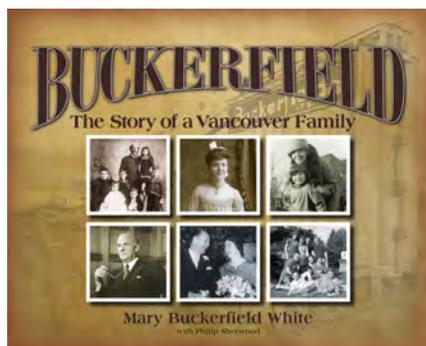

466557 Apr 9
Th 7:00 - 9:00pm 1/$12

Book Design

With more than two decades experience in the field of computer-based publication design, Bill Glasgow will speak on his passion for designing books, several of which have won awards.

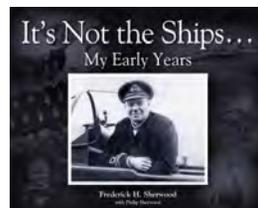

466558 Apr 16
Th 7:00 - 9:00pm 1/$12

Creating Memoirs

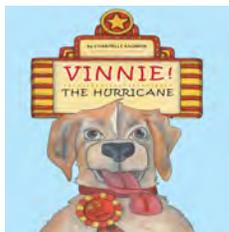

Philip Sherwood is an Abbotsford-based freelance writer/editor whose company specializes in helping individuals, families, organizations, and communities tell their "life stories" and preserve them in print. He also conducts information sessions and seminars for those getting started. While discussing the benefits and challenges of writing your life stories, he will provide an overview of the process, offer a few suggestions on how to get started, and provide some DIY resources. Bring your questions! lifewriters.ca

466559 Apr 23
Th 7:00 - 9:00pm 1/$12

Celebrating & Supporting Childhood Literacy

Join self-published author, Chantelle Saumier and illustrator Vanessa Steunenberg as they discuss their passion for early childhood literacy and how this passion leads to the creation of their children's book series. chantellesaumier.com

466560 Apr 30
Th 7:00 - 9:00pm 1/$12

How to register:

- 1) Register online anytime using our 24/7 system RecExpress.ca
- 2) Come in and register in person.
- 3) Call the Museum 604.532.3536.

Langley Centennial Museum
9135 King Street, Fort Langley

Old Press

Vancouver artist and writer Gary Sim will speak on the art of relief printing and its use in letterpress publications and artists' books. Tools, inks, papers, finished blocks, prints, and an antique nipping press will be on display and used for a printing demonstration.

sim-publishing.com
british-columbia-artists.ca

466562
Th 7:00 - 9:00pm

May 14
1/$12

Books for Kids: A Collaboration

Internationally-recognized painter Richard Cole and award-winning writer K. Jane Watt are developing a loyal audience of readers with their multi-layered children's books, The Boy Who Paints and The Girl Who Writes. Come hear them talk about their working collaboration to join the visual and the literary in a rich tapestry of meaning. fentonstreet.ca

466561
Th 7:00 - 9:00pm

May 7
1/$12

